

Top 10 Reasons You Need EMC Secure Remote Gateway

How you benefit from advanced remote support from EMC Services

Here's why the EMC[®] Secure Remote Support Gateway is the right choice for keeping your information protected—and available when you need it most:

- 1 Compliance with corporate and governmental regulations.
EMC Secure Remote Support Gateway makes compliance a snap—with logs of all access events.
- 2 Easy integration.
Configuration with your storage management network and firewalls is simple—and fast.
- 3 Maximum information infrastructure protection.
IP-based sessions enable lightning-fast information transfer and resolution.
- 4 One access point. One solution.
Consolidate your remote support for your EMC information infrastructure here.
- 5 Failover without fail.
Remote access to your disaster recovery site makes recovery from unplanned events seamless.
- 6 Make changes—without changing your schedule.
EMC Remote Change Management and the EMC Secure Remote Support Gateway are a perfect pair. Change when you want—with help from EMC experts.
- 7 Control who, what, and when—and even know why.
EMC Policy Manager (included with your Secure Remote Support Gateway) puts you in complete control—and provides the information you need stay there.
- 8 Protect information in motion—as well as information at rest.
Triple-DES encryption during information transfer keeps your information yours.
- 9 Reduce costs and data center clutter.
Eliminate modem clutter and phone line costs.
- 10 Security. Security. Security. Period.
EMC uses leading-edge encryption, authentication, audit, and authorization for ultra-high security remote support.